THE ABORIGINAL PEOPLES COLLECTION

Library Catalogue of Aboriginal Resources

Introduction

The development of the Aboriginal Peoples Collection is timely. It coincides with a growing interest in the issues of Aboriginal Peoples and the criminal justice system within the Ministry of the Solicitor General, other federal departments and non-Governmental groups, agencies and institutions.

Over the past few years the Ministry of the Solicitor General's Library in Ottawa has dramatically increased its collection of books, reports, articles and video cassettes relating to Aboriginal Peoples.

The increased interest in Aboriginal criminal justice issues is exemplified by the growing number of post-secondary educational institutions offering courses in this subject and the number of students who are exploring the special issues of Aboriginal corrections as part of general sociology and criminology courses.

The Ministry's collection is a valuable and important addition to the limited number of Libraries and Resource Centres providing accessible information in the area of Aboriginal administration of justice and, specifically, corrections.

COLLECTION SUR LES AUTOCHTONES

Ouvrages Autochtones à la bibliothèque

Introduction

L'enrichissement de cette collection est à point puisqu'il coïncide avec la manifestation d'un intérêt croissant pour la question des autochtones et du système de justice pénale, au sein du ministère du Solliciteur général, d'autres ministères et de groupes, organismes et institutions non gouvernementaux.

Au cours des dernières années, la bibliothèque du ministère du Solliciteur général, à Ottawa, a considérablement augmenté sa collection de livres, de rapports, d'articles et de vidéocassettes sur les autochtones.

Cet intérêt accru pour la justice pénale en ce qu'elle touche les autochtones se voit, entre autres, au nombre grandissant d'établissements d'enseignement postsecondaire qui offrent des cours sur ce sujet et au nombre d'étudiants qui se penchent sur la question des services correctionnels fournis aux autochtones, dans le cadre des cours généraux de sociologie et de criminologie.

La collection du Ministère constitue un précieux ajout aux informations concernant l'administration de la justice en milieu autochtone, et plus particulièrement les services correctionnels, que l'on trouve dans un nombre limité de bibliothèques et de centres de documentation.

Le catalogue comprend deux parties: un répertoire alphabétique des auteurs, des titres et des collections, et une liste des notices par vedettes-matière.

Prêt

Les employés du Secrétariat du Ministère, du Service correctionnel du Canada et de la Commission nationale des libérations conditionnelles peuvent emprunter des documents directement de la bibliothèque. Pour plus de détails, composez le (613) 991-2787.

Prêt-entre-bibliothèques

Toutes les autres personnes désirant emprunter des documents doivent passer par le service de prêt-entre-bibliothèques de la bibliothèque de leur ministère, école ou université ou de leur bibliothèque publique.

Quelques-uns des titres figurant dans le catalogue ne peuvent être circuler à l'extérieur du Ministère. Cette restriction est indiquée sur la fiche "NON DISPONIBLE POUR PRÊT".
